The City of Melbourne

Melbourne is a very large city situated on the south-eastern coast of Australia. It is made up of a Central Business District and many surrounding suburbs. Melbourne covers an area of more than 6000 km², which is about the size of London. In one hundred and fifty years, Melbourne has grown from a small campsite into a city with several million people. Now it is a modern commercial and financial centre and Australia's second largest city. Most families live in the suburbs in a detached house with its own garden. This means that people have to travel long distances to school and work or to go shopping. Almost everyone has a car and although most streets are wide, there is always a traffic problem during the rush hour. Melbourne is a beautiful city with numerous parks and gardens. There are a lot of monuments, interesting buildings and sights to see. It has the world's largest zoo, which houses famous Australian animals such as the kangaroo and koala bear. There is also a lot to do in the evenings. So if you ever visit Australia, make sure you spend a few days in the "Garden City".

1. Melbourne is situated near the sea.
2. Melbourne is 150 years old.
3. All people drive to work in Melbourne.
4. Most people live in blocks of flats.
5. Traffic jams are common in Melbourne.
6. Only in the Melbourne Zoo you can meet the kangaroo and koala bear.
7. Melbourne has a quiet night life.
8. Melbourne is called "the Garden City".
